Potlatch Corporation Lifts Campfire Ban

2017-09-22

SPOKANE, Wash., September 22, 2017—Potlatch Corporation today announced that the campfire ban issued on July 19, 2017 has been lifted on its property in Idaho. Even though cooler temperatures and recent moisture have reduced fire risk, Potlatch urges forest users to be cautious and responsible with fires when using forest land. Additional information about Potlatch's Idaho properties can be found online at www.potlatchcorp.com.
