

RAYONIER INC.

CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

As Amended June 27, 2014

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) shall be to assist the Board of Directors in:

- identifying qualified individuals for nomination to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board of Directors
- recommending to the Board of Directors qualified individuals for election as directors
- determining the composition of Board committees
- overseeing processes to evaluate Board and committee effectiveness and the performance of management
- overseeing a set of Corporate Governance Principles for the Company.

MEMBERSHIP AND AUTHORITY

The Committee shall consist of a minimum of three directors appointed annually by the Board of Directors, all of whom, in the business judgment of the Board, satisfy the independence requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the New York Stock Exchange and applicable law. The Committee may designate and delegate duties to such standing or ad-hoc subcommittees as it deems necessary or desirable, provided that any such sub-committee is composed entirely of independent directors.

ENGAGEMENT OF ADVISORS

The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain, compensate and terminate any search firm used to identify director candidates and any consultant retained in connection with director compensation practices, including the sole authority to approve the search firm’s or consultant’s fees and other retention terms. However, the Committee may: (1) consider management recommendations regarding the appropriate consultant to retain and the terms and conditions of service, and (2) authorize management to enter into contracts with consultants based on terms and conditions approved by the Committee.

The Committee shall also have authority to obtain advice and assistance from and to compensate internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors. The Committee may request that any director, officer or employee of the Company, or any other person whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, attend a Committee meeting or meet with any member of, or consultant to, the Committee.

GOALS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall have the following specific goals and responsibilities, in addition to any other similar matters which may be referred to it from time to time by the Board of Directors:

1. Nomination of Director Candidates.

- To identify, recruit, screen and select individuals qualified to become Board members as necessary to fill vacancies or the additional needs of the Board, consistent with criteria approved by the Board.
- To consider potential director nominees appropriately recommended by management or shareholders.
- To recommend to the Board a slate of director nominees to be presented for shareholder approval at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
- In evaluating the suitability of potential director nominees, to seek individuals who have the knowledge, experience, skills, expertise and diversity, together with the highest personal and professional integrity, to be most effective, in conjunction with the other Board nominees and members, in collectively serving the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders.
- To determine the specific qualifications, qualities, skills and other expertise required to be a director of the Company and to develop, and recommend to the Board of Directors, specific criteria to be considered in selecting nominees for director.
- To periodically reevaluate the foregoing criteria for Board membership considering the Company's strategy, geographic markets, regulatory environment and other relevant business factors, as well as changes in applicable laws or listing standards.
- To provide advice and counsel to the Board regarding director independence evaluations and determinations.

2. Board and Committee Structure.

- To review, at least annually, the structure of the Board to assure that the proper skills and experience are represented, and to advise the Board with respect to Board composition, procedures and committees.
- To develop and recommend to the Board director independence standards that are consistent with the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.
- To ensure that not less than 75% of Board members shall be independent directors under applicable law, regulations and listing standards.
- To annually review Board committee assignments and evaluate the Board's policy with respect to rotation of committee members and/or chairpersons.
- To review and recommend Board committee slates annually and to recommend additional committee members to fill vacancies as needed, in each case taking into account the desired qualifications for membership on each committee, the availability of the director to meet the time commitment required for membership on the particular committee, and the Company's policy on periodic rotation of committee members.
- To oversee required proxy statement disclosures regarding Board leadership structure, director qualifications and considerations of diversity.

3. Corporate Governance.

- To regularly review developments relating to corporate governance issues.
- To oversee the Company's Corporate Governance Principles covering directors and management, including review of such Principles and the Company's adherence thereto on at least an annual basis, and to recommend changes as necessary.
- To periodically review and recommend to the Board any changes to the other documents and policies in the Company's corporate governance framework, including its Articles of Incorporation and By-laws.
- To annually review and approve changes to the charters of the other Board committees.

4. Board Evaluation.

- To oversee a process for annual self-evaluation of the effectiveness of the operation of the Board and its committees.
- To perform an annual self-evaluation consistent with such process, including a review of the Committee's performance against applicable law and listing standards and the adequacy of this Charter, and to recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

5. Director Compensation.

- To review the Board's policies for director compensation and benefits and stock ownership and hedging.
- To make recommendations to the Board on an annual basis with respect to director compensation and benefits.
- To periodically benchmark the compensation of directors at comparable companies.

6. Change in Status/Length of Service.

- To consider the resignation from the Board of any incumbent director who, following his or her nomination as a director but failure to be elected as a director by the shareholders, tenders his or her resignation from the Board in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Principles and to make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to accept or reject the resignation.
- To review the suitability for continued service as a director of any Board member who has, consistent with Board policy, offered to resign due to retirement from or other change in the principal position he or she held when initially elected to the Board.
- To make recommendations to the Board regarding limits on length of Board service and mandatory retirement age for Board members.

7. Training. To periodically monitor the orientation and training needs of directors and recommend action to the Board, individual directors and management where appropriate.

8. Board Operation.

- Prior to expiration of the current term of the Lead Director, or the independent Chairman, as the case may be, to recommend a successor candidate to the Board for election for such position.
- To make recommendations on the frequency, content and structure of Board meetings.

- To periodically evaluate the quality, sufficiency and currency of information furnished by management to the directors in connection with Board and committee meetings and other activities of the directors.

9. Related Person Transactions. To review, approve and oversee any transaction between the Company and any related person (as defined in Item 404(a) of the SEC's Regulation S-K) in accordance with the Company's Policy and Procedures with Respect to Related Person Transactions.

10. Additional Functions. To perform such other functions within the scope of the foregoing as the Committee may deem appropriate to undertake from time to time.

REPORTING

The Committee shall report its actions and recommendations to the Board and shall conduct and present to the Board an annual performance evaluation of the Committee.
